

Roxbury Community College's Student Convocation

*Thursday, September 25, 2003
11:30 am to 12:45 pm
Media Arts Center Auditorium*

Today's Guest Speaker

*Dr. Donald Brown, Director
AHANA Program at Boston College*

Dr. Donald Brown has served as the Director of the Office of AHANA Student Programs at Boston College for twenty-five years. AHANA is an acronym for African-American, Hispanic, Asian and Native Americans. Central to the mission of AHANA Student Programs is to provide an array of support services aimed at assisting in the optimal academic performance, retention, and eventual graduation of AHANA students from Boston College. Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Dr. Brown served as Regional Director of the Massachusetts Department of Youth Services, (DYS) where he was responsible for the care and placement of eight hundred youth adjudicated delinquent. Prior to DHS, Dr. Brown served as Director of Upward Bound at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst. Over the years, Dr. Brown has written about and made presentations on retention issues and has received citations for his work at structuring model retention programs.

Program Highlights

Welcome:

*Elizabeth Clark, Director
Office of Student Activities*

Greetings:

*Dr. Terrence Gomes, President
Roxbury Community College*

Administration Update:

*Dr. Terrence Gomes, President
Roxbury Community College*

Student Government

SGA Update:

*Abeba Attles
SGA President*

Keynote Speaker:

*Dr. Donald Brown
Director of AHANA Student Programs
Boston College*

Closing Remarks:

*Andrew Sande
SGA Vice President*

Roxbury Community College

Gateway to the Dream

All artwork taken from online websites, and produced by Artists Paul Goodnight and Katherine Roundtree. For more information on these artists and their work visit:
<http://www.ebonyart.com/prts1.html>